SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 40 months.

Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime, shall be prohibited from possessing a firearm or other dangerous device, shall not possess an illegal controlled substance and shall comply with the other standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (on the next page).

The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release and shall comply with the following special conditions:

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall be prohibited from possessing a firearm or other dangerous device, shall not possess an illegal controlled substance and shall comply with the other standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court. The defendant must submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer.

In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall refrain from the use of alcohol and shall submit to testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant submit to evaluation and treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant shall submit to drug treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is to refrain from associating with, or being in the company of, any members of the Bloods street gang, or members of any other street gang. The defendant shall be restricted from frequenting any location where the Bloods street gang members are known to congregate or meet; shall not wear, display, use, or possess any insignia, emblem, logo, jewelry, cap, hat, bandana, shoelace, or any article of clothing which has any Bloods significance or is evidence of affiliation with, or membership in the Bloods street gang.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall keep daily log(as provided by U.S. Probation Office), of his employment activities and submit these logs on a weekly basis to his Probation officer. The defendant shall attach copies of the pay stubs to his monthly reports, and if self-employed, furnish the U.S. Probation Office with verification that he is in compliance with tax laws governing such employment.
